

Position Announcement

Midway Extension District, consisting of Ellsworth and Russell counties, is located in north central Kansas with a population of 13,500. Easy commutes, low crime, affordable cost of living, and friendly people can be found throughout the district. The location offers a family friendly lifestyle with opportunities to enjoy life and work in a rural environment with easy access to the several nearby larger communities.

The Midway Extension District has five school districts, two medical centers, churches, restaurants, libraries, and shopping opportunities. District offices are located in Ellsworth and Russell and include four agents, one program assistant, and two office professionals. The district owns multiple vehicles for agent use, and sufficient budget for updated equipment and programming resources.

TITLE: Extension Agent

PRIMARY AREA OF RESPONSIBILITY: Family and Consumer Sciences

LOCATION: Offices in Ellsworth and Russell. Primary office location for this position is Ellsworth, but duties will cover both counties.

APPLICATION DATE: Applications will be accepted through July 19, 2018. Interviews will be conducted on August 8, 2018.

Responsibilities:

Extension agents are professional educators who serve as a link between Kansas State University and communities across Kansas. Agents are administratively responsible to the Director of K-State Research and Extension (represented by a designated administrator) and the local extension board.

1. Provide primary leadership for the development and implementation of research-based programming related to family and consumer sciences. Programming will include but is not limited to: family life, nutrition, food safety, parenting, communication, financial management, leadership, health and safety.
2. Provide support for 4-H youth development programming related to family and consumer sciences.
3. Share responsibility for community vitality educational programming that addresses community functions of leadership, government, health, economy, ecosystems and social well-being.
4. Programming will include these steps:
  - a) Identify local needs and emerging issues related to K-State Research and Extension's five Grand Challenges (water, community vitality, health, developing tomorrow's leaders and global food systems) by engaging with program development committees and other community organizations and professionals.
  - b) Design appropriate educational strategies to engage clientele. These strategies might include delivering educational programming in a community-based setting, coordinating events and activities that provide experiential learning opportunities, using innovative technologies, providing individual educational consultations and facilitating groups seeking similar educational outcomes. Some overnight travel and evening and weekend work will be required.
  - c) Develop and implement strategies to expand the reach of educational programming to under-served audiences and to make certain K-State Research and Extension is an equal opportunity provider of educational programming.
  - d) Collect and communicate evidence of educational program impact.
  - e) Develop specialized knowledge and skills by engaging as a member of a Program Focus Team.
5. Secure external funding such as grants, gifts and cost recovery to supplement local tax revenue to support and expand educational programming.
6. Serve as a member of the Midway District team cooperating in the planning and delivery of district-wide programming and related events.

QUALIFICATIONS

Required:

- Bachelor's degree with knowledge of family and consumer sciences as evidenced by academic courses, professional development and/or professional experience.
- Evidence of strong academic and/or professional performance as documented by college transcripts, acceptance into a graduate program or documented success in increasingly responsible professional positions.
- Ability to communicate effectively, both orally and in writing, with individuals, groups and through mass media.
